Early Dwarf Iris

MESSENGERS OF SPRING

One of the most interesting groups of the Iris family. Often these little fellows will be seen welcoming the first spring days even before the snow is entirely gone. They should be used liberally in the sunny rock garden and are fine border plants for hardy perennial beds or walks. As a table decoration, a low bowl of these pretty babies can't be beat.

Fall Blooming Iris

A newly developed race of Iris coming in dwarf, intermediate and tall bearded types. Blooming in early spring and again in autumn, creating new interest at a time when our garden enthusiasm is low. These naturally are best adapted to those sections of the country where the falls are long and mild, though favorable reports have been received from customers in the far northeast. It is quite essential that they are watered during the summer to help produce new growth and vigor for the second crop of blossoms. They are all rugged varieties, and make an excellent spring showing, blooming here at tulip time.

"It's Iris time! It's Iris time! Twixt

Tulip-days and Rose,

The garden walk in Iris time with purple splendor glows.

The leafy spears are on parade, the bugles of the June

Summon each bud and bloom and blade with sturdy marching tune."
